PROFESSIONAL MODELING BOOTCAMP

WILDERBEE
TALENT CAMP

ABOUT US

Allow me to take you on a journey towards change. Wilderbee was founded on the principles of inclusivity and driven by an urgency to make itself accessible. While we offer a lot of different services, the model training camp is our flagship course.

It is a five-day intensive training program where goal is transformation, both of the inner and outer self. It was curated for any aspiring model to enter the industry in the right way so that they can leverage their skills and knowledge for better opportunities.

Age, gender, height, weight, or any other variable does not matter in your selection process. What matters is the potential you have and your desire to make an impact in the modeling industry.

Ever since I started educating, two most recurring inner experience that my students had were that of feeling truly beautiful and being enough.

Ultimately the skills developed at Wilderbee enables it's talents to bargain for better opportunities.
